

CRANE'S COVE SERIES

BY KERRY EVELYN

Sweet small-town contemporary romance with faith elements

Crane's Cove is an idyllic coastal town in Downeast Maine. There's always a friendly face waiting to serve customers at quaint eateries, like Dockside Ice Cream, an ice cream parlor shaped like a giant milk bottle, or The Lobster Trap. A tiny white clapboard church with stained glass and polished pews is the beating heart of the town. Craggy cliffs descending to beautiful beaches, horseback-riding trails through white birch and pine forests, and secluded wildflower meadows offer gorgeous views that could only be painted by God. Guests can experience horseback rides, ocean kayaking, and midday picnics at the Cliff Walk Resort, which also features cozy accommodations within Crane's Light, a floating lighthouse, providing the finishing touch to an already perfect town.
